

“The work of preaching is the highest and greatest and most glorious calling to which anyone can ever be called”
Martyn Lloyd-Jones

A challenge

The coronavirus has certainly presented challenges to everyone, in all walks of life. Many things seem to be ‘on hold’ and we have all had to adapt to the change in circumstances. It is good to know that the Lord is sovereign in all things.

Some of the lectures which have been recorded.

Seminary Teaching Continues

We are grateful to God that He has allowed the Seminary to continue, but in a different way. For the Seminary teaching times, lectures have been pre-recorded and uploaded into the Seminary Office 365 for the students to access. The Lord has enabled certain Trustees to acquire new technological skills to do this!

Meetings

To help keep in touch, lecturers and students have had a Zoom meeting during the Seminary weekends. These have been precious times and, although not the same as interacting in Grove House, it has helped to retain some personal contact.

Church Support Fellowship

Recently, seven men have been meeting together regularly to discuss providing support to Biblical and like-minded churches, or those aspiring to establish such churches. They have formed the ‘Church Support Fellowship’, desiring to “strengthen the things that remain”.

Some of the Trustees and students who were able to meet on Zoom during the last Seminary weekend.

Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified
 2 Thessalonians 3:1