'holiness in the house'

Psa 93:5 Thy testimonies are very sure: holiness becometh thine house, O LORD, for ever.

- This psalm associates holiness with the house of God. It is an important principle scriptures

- The Scriptures are mentioned as being very sure. You could continue the thought with the role of Scriptures in bringing holiness into the house

God

- The phrase may well refer to the holiness of God filling the house. We see this especially in times of revival. Another example is the dedication of Solomon's temple.
- We also know this holiness in more ordinary times saints

- It is quite likely the main thought is how we should be holy in our approach to God
- The term saints essentially means the holy ones

worship

- It is also quite likely that holiness in worship is meant by these words. In these days of unholy worship we are to come before him with reverence and worship him in a way which is appropriate to his great glory
- May we adorn the house of God with holiness.

heaven

- We speak of Heaven as the house of the Lord. This house is all holiness.

glory to thee my Lord

Glory to Thee, my Lord,
Infinite King;
Wonderful peace afford
Under Thy wing!
Incarnate Deity,
Merciful Calvary,
This is my only plea:
Hear my heart sing.

Glory I bring to Thee
Not of mine own,
All Thou hast given me
Now I return.
All Thine enabling grace Leads me on life's long race,
Until I see Thy face,
When I come home.

Glory belongs to Thee,
To Thee alone;
Thieves we must never be Before Thy throne.
We are the lost now
found,

Here on redemption
ground,
Hearing the Gospel
sound,
No more to roam.

Glory and praises sweet
Flow to Thee now;
True adoration meet
See as we bow.
Glory to God above,
Father and Son of love
Spirit who, Holy Dove, Grace dost endow.

vernon higham

Vernon Higham was born in Caernarfon, North Wales, but moved to Bolton in Lancashire, England, during the depression in the 1930's.

Following employment and training as a teacher in his early twenties, he attended theological college in Aberystwyth and came to know Christ's saving power whilst there in 1953.

Vernon Higham served, in his early ministry, in Welsh speaking churches at Pontardulais from 1955 to 1958, and at Llanddewibrefi from 1958 to 1962.

There followed a call in 1962 to Heath Church in Cardiff, where he served for forty years.

In the summer of 2003 he took up the position of Pastor Emeritus at Tabernacle Cardiff.

Before their marriage in 1955, Morwen Higham served as a 'Sister of the People' in the Forward Movement.

Throughout their marriage Vernon and Morwen Higham worked together as partners in the Gospel work, as heirs together of the grace of life.
